DARWIN HOLIDAY JUNE 2023 - PART 1

STORY AND PHOTOS BY KATE BOSSENCE

Having once lived in the tropics in Cairns many years ago combined with a (current) desperate urge to escape a freezing cold Mallee Winter I recently went up to Darwin for some much-needed sun, warmth, health, a holiday and to unwind. I have been to Darwin [in] the past, a couple of times over the years and love the laid-back tropical lifestyle plus the Territorians. They are very funny and unique people.

It had been 14 years since I was last in Darwin and I had never been there in The Dry before, so was very much looking forward to heading up to Never Never Land. After a very turbulent flight from Broken Hill right through to Darwin, with the plane bucking like a bronco in a rodeo, I disembarked into warmth, warmth, warmth. How wonderful it felt not feeling bone chillingly and aching cold. For the next 2 weeks I discarded and packed away all my Winter clothing not wishing to be reminded at all just how freezing cold Victorian Winters really are. Perhaps too it is a sign of getting older as I tolerate cold weather less and less each year. In the first couple of days I lazed around and used the marvellous motel pool every day. It seemed surreal wearing a t-shirt, cotton pants and thongs. Having lived in the tropics in the past I took to "rubber time" (a term used in the tropics as slowing right down and chilling out) quite literally. How I miss that wonderful laid back lifestyle! I don't miss living in The Wet season, however. This isn't known as "Going Troppo" for nothing! The high levels of humidity leading up to The Wet can be very challenging at the best of times. I do, though, much, much prefer the humidity to the dry heat of the Mallee in Summer!

Given I visited Darwin in The Dry there were a lot of bushfires around the place. Because of the high levels of humidity thankfully you can't smell them and the sunsets at this time of year have to be seen to be believed due to all of the smoke. I went to the Mindill Beach Markets and saw the sunsets. They are beyond incredible. The colours, warmth, ambience, and friendliness of the Territorians made me wish I was living up north again. The famed Mindill Beach Markets were fabulous, and I strongly suggest that anyone who wishes to go to Darwin visits them. The live bands, international food stalls, local artists and stalls are magnificent. A real smorgasboard in more ways than one!

I also happened to be in Darwin on the 1st of July where it is legal for anyone in the NT to buy and let off fireworks! In 1978 the NT became independent to the rest of Australia and every July 1st NT Day or Cracker Night is celebrated with great abandon throughout the NT. I was initially quite sceptical about this as I thought of all of the poor animals both domestic and wild that would be affected by the fireworks. Those Territorians really know how to party! Fireworks began with a bang at around 5 PM and carried on until around 1 AM. From where I was staying I saw the F18s fly past. I could feel the windows and whole building shake with the velocity and ferocity of these magnificent jets. As a dyed in the wool "Top Gun" fan I was in Utopia. Seeing these incredible Grey Birds roaring past then flying straight up into the air out of sight then suddenly swooping back to earth made the hair on the back of my arms stand straight out. It was fantastic! Oh, to fly in one of these Birds!

When the firecrackers went off it really did sound like a warzone. I couldn't help but feel sorry for the poor animals yet at the same time seeing people enjoying themselves, the parties and celebrations of the Territorians was a wonderful experience. Given it was during The Dry the poor essential services were kept flat out putting out small spot fires from some of the crackers. Indeed, there was a small fire just where I was doing some filming! Thankfully I was in the (somewhat) safe confines of my motel inside on the other side of the fence where the pool is. The noise was indescribable yet hearing the cheering and partying of people was an unforgettable experience. It was difficult not to go with the flow, so I did! I did not (however) buy nor let off any crackers. I wouldn't dare!

Learn Local

KNH is passionate about Community Voice and acting on what people are saying is needed in Kerang!

Part of KNH's strategic plan was to explore ACFE (Adult Community Further Education) Pre-Accredited training and implementation. This was in response to the MMLLEN Barriers and Pathways meetings that occurred in 2022, which identified a big gap in Kerang for training.

KNH is now AFCE/Learn Local registered!! What this means is that we can now offer a range of pre-accredited courses that aren't limited to, but do offer the opportunity for those that may:

- Not have studied for some time and need to ease into before enrolling in an accredited certificate.
- Have low level literacy and/or numeracy skills and welcome the opportunity to increase these skills within a small class that will support them to achieve a positive outcome.
- Early School leavers (17yo+) who don't wish to continue after year 10, but still aren't sure of their future pathway.

We have also received some funding from ACFE to employ an ES (Education Support) to support any students that may require that extra bit of support in the class, which is very exciting as we want students to thrive in the class and feel confident that they are achieving their learning goals.

ACFE provides funding to KNH to offer the courses, this allows us to offer them at a low cost.

In term 4, the courses we are hoping to offer, pending participation numbers.

- Aged Care- This course will give the opportunity to learn about the sector, whilst developing your literacy and numeracy skills, it is perfect for someone who hasn't study for some time or wants to know more about the sector before committing to an accredited course.
- Digital Skills Level 1- You will learn the skills to feel confident to undertake basic tasks.
- Intro to Bookkeeping and Small business skills-Xero Computerised- Learn some basics of how to use Xero.

2024 is going to be an exciting time in this space and KNH looks forward to working with our community to develop and offer courses that people wish to undertake.

CURLEY'S CORNER

POEMS BY KEN CULLEN

MORE AUSTRALIAN HUMOUR FROM BUNYIP CREEK AND EMU BEND

The tiny town of Emu Bend
Is one of my favourite places
And one event I never miss
Is the annual Bush Races.

This year was a bonzer day
They smartened up the course
And all the local cockies
Groomed their old farm horse.

Harry Barnes had a rough nag
He called it Ginger Mick
The bloody thing could run all day
But never very quick.

Snagger Smith had a trusty steed
A favourite with the bookies
Before the race he fed her up
With a jar of home made cookies.

The horse's name was Bustling Bess
A pretty looking thing
Snagger dreamt about the day
He would lead her round the ring.

The large crowd gathered for the cup
Of course the featured race
The starter's name was Alfie Grey
He had a craggy face.

The horses took off in a bunch
The leader Lulu Belle
She was a fiesty little mare
Who could run like bloody hell.

She led the field into the straight
The pace had been a quickie
Then Snagger at the finish line
Showed Bustling Bess a bickie.

Bess took off and crossed the line
Ahead of Lulu Belle
Snagger was so overjoyed
He kissed the judge as well.

Then off they trooped to Murphy's Pub
A heap of happy faces
Like I said "it is a real good day"
The Emu Bend Bush Races.

WE WISH TO THANK THE CULLEN FAMILY
FOR PERMISSION TO PUBLISH

GLENARM AND WD THOMAS ACTIVITY CENTER NEWS

AUGUST 15TH

WD Thomas Activity Centre

The consumers from the Activity Centre took a trip down memory lane as they visited the Border Flywheelers Museum in Barham.

It was a perfect day to enjoy the amazing displays and great food provided by the Volunteers at the Museum.

The freshly baked Scones with jam and cream were a real hit with everyone.

For some of our Consumers this was the first time they have been to the museum and will definitely be a destination we have on our program again.

AUGUST 17

Glenarm

The past couple of weeks the Resident's have enjoyed Cycling Without Age Bike rides - many thanks to pilot rider Ange Hird.

Craft activities have included card making & leaf painting/prints.

Entertainment by the extremely talented duo of Terry/piano & Maria/violin, which was enjoyed by all.

AUGUST 24

Glenarm

On Wednesday 16/8 we enjoyed lunch at Club Barham Rivergum Restaurant before taking in the sights of the Murray River, Koondrook Retreat & canola crops in Myall/Westby.

On Tuesday 22/8 we were privileged to welcome visiting Author Elizabeth Fensham.

Libby gave an insight into how she became a published author (of ten books) including "The Invisible Hero", "Helicopter Man" & "McAllister's Ghost". We welcomed work experience student Hallie, who helped us out during the week.

AUGUST 29

WD Thomas Activity Centre

The Consumers of the Activity Centre enjoyed the Annual Kerang Book Parade. Consumers were proudly wearing the Wally Beanies they made and waving mini Wally's. The Children loved to see the Wally's in the crowd .

You couldn't have wished for a better day as the weather was perfect.
